DAVIDSON
CITY LIMIT
BIRD
SANCTUARY

a house is not a home —
a campus not a college . . .
and people make the difference,
and the indifference . . .
the action, and the apathy.

changes and the man
who made them —
the man and the changes
which made him.

a gallup poll . . .
27% sleep,
33% count bricks,
35% draw pictures,
4% look attentive,
1% really listen.

the arts . . .
made for davidson to ignore,
performed before empty seats.
curlew river
flows into the rio grande,
doesn't it?

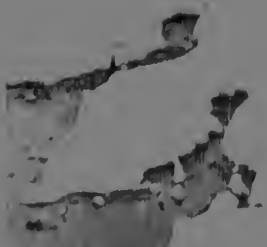
Right You Are

mid-winters . . .
mix the magic of
women,
the fun of parties,
and the joy
of concerts.

davidson.
a suitcase campus.
made of samsonite.

run by keychains,
decorated
with travel stubs,
carried by its people.

the weather at davidson
comes at the worst times,
causes the most trouble . . .
sometimes the most fun.



1969
quips and cranks

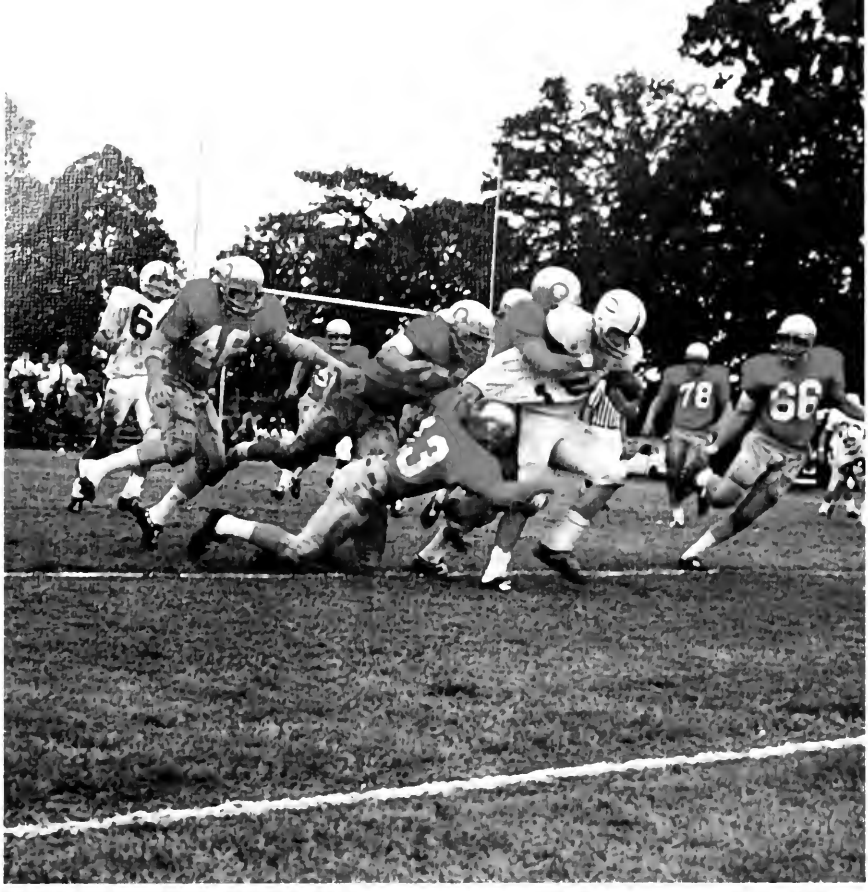
annual publication
davidson college, davidson, n.c.

don gately, editor
ken gallup, business manager

ours is like
any other campus . . .

except smaller, smarter,
and male.

a familiar walk among
old scenes
under the blue sky.



blood,
sweat,
and tears . . .

in an age of giants
brains spare the blood and
nonchalance the tears.

harder to grasp than
a sunset to describe . . .

harder to live
than a ray to climb.

as colors flame and
grow profuse,
so do people and parties.

YUKON
KING

pretty girls,
sunny afternoons,
long nights,
gala festivities . . .

headaches on more
headaches, rumors of
monday morning.

the maidens . . .
guardians of the hill,
campus overseers,
and good dates on lonely nights.

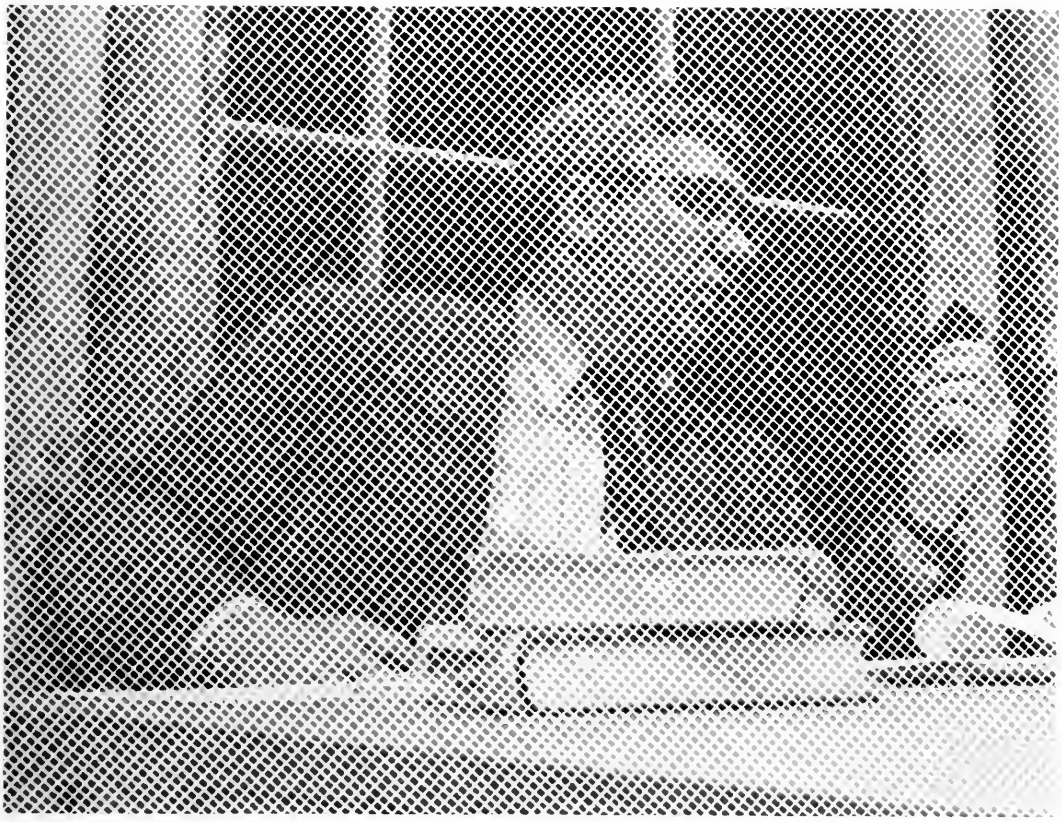
In an age of
the ever-madding crowd,
each face . . .
still the unit of function . . .
still worthy of respect . . .
able to do
what the wild crowd cannot . . .
think.



FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Some unique,
some pompous,
some creative,
some Xerox copiers . . .

they teach and
rule and
smoke pipes.

So much to be learned
outside class . . .
pity that few
have enough time
and few
the courage to make it.
